Without Warning Snags Sponsorship from Two Nationally Renowned Backdrop and Drapery Providers

If you think that Without Warning couldn't rock any harder - get this - your favorite local Los Angeles cover band just landed a sweet sponsorship gig from two of L.A.'s hottest supporters of the music industry - Rent What? Inc., and its sister company Sew What? Inc., both based in Rancho Dominguez, CA. The two sponsors specialize in providing the manufacturing and rental of theatrical draperies and custom backdrops for rock shows, tours, and music venues across the U.S.

Without Warning's sponsorship is not only flattering to the cover band, but is also benefiting the growing number of fans in Los Angeles' music scene. It will beef up the production prowess of this local cover band and enable it to have the look, feel, and sound of a touring rock show.

"We want our fans, venue partners, and sponsors alike to all know that we are passionate about what we do. We believe in setting the bar high. With a sponsorship from Rent What? Inc. and Sew What? Inc, we will get to turn it up to 11 and rock our fans that much harder," says lead singer, Megan Dawn. "We want to rock our fans, make it a memorable show, and pay tribute to the master musicians of our time by giving fans the variety of music they crave - and playing it well. Rent What? has such an awesome collection of rental drapes and soft goods to use for all these shows that we can't wait until we land some of the larger gigs. And when the big shows come, Sew What?'s ability to manufacture custom backdrops and stage drapes ensures our image grows along with our show. I honestly couldn't think of a better scenario for us to seamlessly grow into something huge. We are truly flattered at this opportunity to give our fans a legit show they won't forget!"

Both Rent What?, and Sew What? are friends of the musician - no matter how big or how small the show. They've been serving rock stars such as Billy Idol, Aerosmith, Pink Floyd, Black Sabbath and Pearl Jam with custom backdrops and drapes for their spectacular tours since 1992. Even with some of the biggest stars today on their roster, both Rent What? and Sew What? still have the philosophy of truly caring about the music and musician, no matter what stage of an artist's or a band's career.
